Charleston County Code Enforcement summary:

Where Do We Investigate?

Staff investigates concerns involving public and private properties in the unincorporated areas of Charleston County. The regulations enforced by this department do not supersede the regulations of any municipality within the County.

What Do We Investigate?

Staff investigates concerns related to violations of the following three County ordinances: Charleston County Zoning and Land Development Regulations Ordinance (ZLDR), Regulation of Weeds, Rank Vegetation, and Solid Waste, and the Litter Control Ordinance.

"My purpose for holding these monthly meetings is to share information about County-related issues and to listen to citizens' concerns," Johnson said. "Each month, different speakers are invited to address topics of interest as expressed by the public."

Citizens do not need to register in advance for the round table meetings. For more information or to provide ideas for upcoming topics, contact Charleston County Councilwoman Anna B. Johnson:
